FORT MYERS, Fla. — The first half of the Red Sox's spring exhibition series against the Yankees ended early Sunday. The second half, starting with the game against New York, will get under way Tuesday at the Red Sox's spring training complex. The Yankees lost 2-1 to the Orioles in the first game of the exhibition series. Red Sox starter Clay Buchholz allowed two runs and three hits in four innings, while striking out three and walking none. The Sox fell behind in the first inning when Brett Gardner led off with a homer to left field off Buchholz. It was his first home run of the spring, and it was the only one issued by Buchholz in the game. Boston had a runner at third base with two outs 6d1f23a050
